I was thinkin' about life as a metaphor, about levels of understanding

Bm7 A Bm/E A Bm/E

About my re-lation to the universe, about your relation to me

I was thinkin' about stopping thinking, about reaching a level with no levels

About being the universe, and loving you completely

I was feeling conquered by my heart (I hope it's a benevolent heart)

A heart of one way, a heart of caring

I was feeling that I had to tell you, that I am so afraid

That I'll need you too much, and you'll stop sharing

C#m D E7sus4 !!!

And these things come so naturally

A E A Bm/E A Bm/E

And I quiver at the edge of eternity

I was playing this tune on my guitar, I was playing such a serious game

Turning meanings of life, and playin' on words in my head

I heard footsteps out in the hallway, saw you framed in the doorway of my study

I felt your hand on my shoulder, heard "Honey, come to bed."

And these things come...

Repeat instrumental.

Repeat intro chords.
